Re: Shatkin v. The Bank of New York Mellon Corp. et al.,

McKinlay v. The Bank of New York et al.,
07 Civ. 8765 (PAC)

Dear Judge Crotty:

We represent defendants The Bank of New York and The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation (collectively "BNY") in the above-captioned cases. On January 7, 2008, this Court held a pre-motion conference to discuss a Motion to Dismiss that we plan to file. At that conference, we proposed, and this Court ordered, a due date of February 15, 2008 for the filing of that Motion to Dismiss. Due to an unforeseen change to our schedules, we now request a two-week extension of that date. The new proposed schedule would be as follows: February 29, 2008—Motion to Dismiss due; March 31, 2008—plaintiffs' opposition briefs due; April 14, 2008—defendants' reply brief due. We have not made a previous request for an extension. We have discussed this request and proposed schedule with opposing counsel, and have received their consent.

We seek this extension because after the January 7th pre-motion conference, the Second Circuit requested substantial supplemental briefing in a separate matter involving the attorney who is the principle drafter of this Motion to Dismiss. This briefing was unexpected at the time we proposed the February 15th deadline, and has consumed a substantial amount of time in an already crowded schedule. In addition to this new demand on our time, the same attorney was hospitalized and missed several days of work.

We do not believe that there will be any prejudice to any of the parties by this extension, as indicated by the consent of opposing counsel. We appreciate Your Honor's attention to this matter.
